

Wink Wink, Nod Nod

Different people have different ways of running an auction. One of the things you can rely on at a Barfoot & Thompson auction is that our Auctioneers do not make any bids on behalf of vendors, nor will they make or accept what they believe to be a phantom bid.

It doesn't matter what you call them, they are not real bids, which is why we don't allow that practice at Barfoot & Thompson auctions. We give you our promise that at a Barfoot & Thompson auction, the Auctioneer will never ever knowingly accept a bid from anyone who is not a genuine bidder.
